

Dear Editor,

When I first heard the news that Russ Morin would not be running again for the 28th Legislative District seat I was disappointed, but then former mayor, Amy Bello, announced that she would be running for that seat. I am writing to express my enthusiastic support of Amy Bello. Unlike many politicians who run for office for personal prestige and power and who are only interested in you when they want your vote, Amy has been an unassuming, dedicated public servant—always putting the interest of the town of Wethersfield first. As mayor she handled many challenges with intelligence and grace. Amy is a team player and knows how to work effectively with the town personnel. She has also demonstrated the ability to work respectfully across the aisle to address the needs of the town.

On a personal level Amy Bello has been an outstanding citizen. Over the years she has been a willing volunteer with several community and school committees and has raised her three daughters to appreciate the importance of citizenship and volunteerism. Amy Bello is an asset to the town of Wethersfield. We are fortunate that she is willing to serve our town in this capacity. For all these reasons, I urge you to join me in my enthusiastic support of Amy Bello to fill the 28th Legislative District seat.

Susan Fennelly